Discussion

USSN: 09/645,020

Docket No. 4551-4001 (formerly 4090-4001)

Applicants would like to thank Examiners Thomas and Frenel for the courtesies extended them during the in-in-person interview of 11/18/04. During that interview the art of record was discussed. Examiners Frankel and Thomas indicated that amended claims might be favorably considered in which 1) the insurance policy was recited as a paid incentive incorporated into the price of the vehicle, and/or 2) the premium was recited as not based on individual characteristics of a buyer. The Examiners also provided other helpful suggestions for amendments to the claims. Applicants have incorporated these suggestions into a number of the amended and added claims, and invite the Examiners to contact Applicants' undersigned representative to further discuss any questions they may have.

As discussed during the interview, Joao and Borghesi fail to disclose or suggest the claimed features of Applicants' invention. For example, these references fail to disclose or suggest the provision of any insurance policy as an incentive to purchase or lease a vehicle.
